

THE Carolina

Gazette.

October 3d, 1754.

[NUMB. 1059.]

South-Carolina.

By His Excellency
JAMES GLEN, Esq; Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, in and over His Majesty's said Province, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Time limited by Law for the Continuance of this present Assembly, will expire on the Fourteenth of November next ensuing; which is a Term so short, that no farther Business can conveniently be transacted by the present General Assembly.

I therefore, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Honourable Council, have thought fit to issue this my Proclamation, for the dissolving this General Assembly: And the General Assembly are hereby accordingly dissolved.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of this His Majesty's Province, at the Council-Chamber in Charles-Town, the 1st Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1754, and in the 28th Year of His Majesty's Reign.

JAMES GLEN.

By His Excellency's Command, Wm. Murray, pro Dep. Secy.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

PHILADELPHIA August 15.

IN January, 1753, 4 of our Indian traders (Alexander McGenty, Jabez Evans, Daniel Hendricks, and William Powell) were taken trading on Kautucqui river, near the Ohio, by a party of French Indians, called the Cagnawaga's, who plundered them of goods to the value of several hundred pounds, and carried them to Canada; where they were made slaves. But acquainting the mayor of Albany with their miserable situation, by a letter which he communicated to this government, measures were taken to procure their release. The Indians at first demanded a negro boy for each of them, or as much money as would buy one; but at length were prevailed on by the commissioners of Indian affairs at Albany, to take less: though the whole paid them, with the charges, amounted to seventy-two pounds, five shillings and three half-pence, for the 4 prisoners, which sum has been repaid by this province. However, the Indians it seems pretend not to be satisfied, and Col. Myndert Schuyler, who transacted this matter with them, received lately the following letter from the chief of that nation on the subject, viz.

Falls of St. Louis, June 14, 1754.

I Pray thee, my brother * Anagaroudon, to acquaint the gentlemen, that I have not been satisfied for the prisoners that were delivered to you at Albany last year. My young men tell me every day that they do not like your management, and for the future they'll bring no living prisoners, since they do not receive as much for one of them as will buy a little slave. You know, my brother, that I had only 90 livres of our money. I charge Montandre with this commission, who will explain my sentiments to you, when he delivers you this letter. The least that ought to be paid for a prisoner is 400 livres. Let those that have the management of these sort of affairs, give due attendance to this: Otherwise I will not answer for what may happen hereafter, when my young men make prisoners.

ORONAGUETTE,

Chief of the falls of St. Louis.

* Anagaroudon is Col. Schuyler's Indian name.
† About twenty pounds sterling.

By this mislaid letter from a people with whom this province hath never had any difference, to whom we have never given the least occasion of offence, we may see the contempt in which we are held by the savages; who not content with plundering our people of their goods with impunity, propose to make slaves of all they can catch, or to have a sum for each sufficient to purchase a slave, otherwise threatening they will not be at the trouble of saving our lives. If they are suffered to go on in this manner, and to make a trade of catching our people, and selling them to us again for 400 livres per head, it may in time cost us more to satisfy the demands of that handful of Barbarians, than would serve to defend the province against all its enemies.

Indianburg, in Virginia, Aug. 15. Tuesday last passed thro' this city, on their way home, 6 officers belonging to the regiment from North Carolina, whose companies are all disbanded, and gone to their respective habitations: by them we have advice, that general Innes was preparing to march immediately with the remaining troops, to build a large fort at Wills's creek.

Yesterday at 4 o'clock in the evening, Mous. La Force, 2 cadets, and 17 private men, who were prisoners here, set out under an escort, for the French fort at the Ohio.

Williamburg, Aug. 20. We have advice from fort Du Quiese, the fort the French took from us on the Ohio, of the 29th of July, that they were but 200 men there at that time, 200 more expected in a few days, that the rest went off in several detachments, to the amount of 1000, to assist Indians.

We have also certain intelligence, of several of our men having been taken prisoners since the treaty, and offered by the Indians for sale, at 40 pilloles per head, and for want of purchasers sent to Canada.

The Indians in our interest threaten to give up every thing, if we do nothing this fall.

Beacon, July 29. By letters from Cuthbert on Kennebeck river, dated the 18th instant, we are inform'd that general Winslow had erected several block houses and watch boxes there: That they were building a number of batteries, which would be finished in 2 or 3 days, and that upon the arrival of col. Fry, who was hourly expected with a reinforcement of men, and a good quantity of stores, the general intended to sit out for Teconet with 500 men, and a fleet of 30 boats, to build a strong fort there.

Boston, Aug. 5. By letters from Teconet on Kennebeck river, we are informed, that general Winslow was arrived there with a good body of troops, and that he was busy in building a fort: That he had landed his cannon, and having mounted them, fired them off, when his majesty's health was drunk, a number of the Norridgewick Indians being present, who seem to be well satisfied with our proceedings.

New-York, Aug. 26. We hear from Albany, that about a fortnight ago, 6 canoes with Uttawawa Indians arrived there: They gave out, that they had been at Canada, where the French commandant had offered them the war, and desired them to go against Sagoyewag; but they had refused him, and told him that they had already shed too much English blood, MIDDLETON & BRAILSFORD have just imported in the STRAY'D or stolen from about Charles-town, on the 23d of March last, in the night, a Bay horse 14 hands high, with a star in his forehead, and branded on the maning shoulder M; he is about 9 years old, and does not pace. Whoever bring him to me, shall have TWENTY POUNDS Reward. John Ward.

TO BE SOLD, a Plantation on Beach-Hill, containing 500 acres of land good for corn, rice, and indigo (inferior to few plantations for the latter); and has a large reserve of water, with good high land very convenient on both sides for a mill and out-houses: Likewise a small dwelling, a barn and a mill to purchase, each of 350 acres. Whoever has a mind to purchase, may view with me on the said plantation.

 Saturday last John Shirley, Esq; by the governor, arrived here from in Cape Bay, and has given us the following account, viz. That the forces under gene'l Winston returned to Teconet on the 23d of August. They had the number of about 300, been up to the great carrying place between Kennebec river and Chaudiere, where the French were said to be building a fort, but found no fort there, nor any inhabitants. There was a surveyor with them, who has taken an actual survey of the country, and measured the distance from place to place. They were 16 days on their march upwards and return. The general was taken so ill two days after their departure from Teconet up the river, that a physician thought it absolutely necessary he should return there, which he accordingly did, leaving the command with Lieut. Col. Peabody. The men are all hearty and well; they have lost but one man (an Indian) by sickness or any other accident during their march. They give a fine character of the country, especially at Norridgewick. The passage for an army is very easy to the carrying place, and from thence, by sailing over a pond, and down the river, it requires but a day and an half to Quebec.
 Philadelphia, Sept. 12. The account of Hoffack's being entirely destroy'd, is confirm'd; and another little town about 7 miles from that; the cattle there-about are all kill'd by the enemy, the grain destroy'd, and all the inhabitants retired to Albany.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 3.
 On Tuesday the 24th inst, betwixt 7 and 8 o'clock at Night, as Mr. Samuel Palmarin was coming to town, on Horseback (between Mr. Marbo's and Mr. Hunt's Plantation Gates) two Men in Sailor's Habits came out of a Thicket on one Side of the Road, and gave a Halloo; which brought a third from the opposite Side, who seiz'd the Body of the said Palmarin, and (while one of the two held a drawn Cut-throat to his Breast, and the other a large Cudgel over his Head) robb'd him of all his Money: after which they all three went off into Mr. Hunt's Woods. Mr.
 Palmarin describes the Fellow that seiz'd him, to be middle sized, rather middle aged than young, with a blue Pea Jacket, wide Trowsers, and a Scotch Bonnet: The others he cannot describe. By the Behavior of another Fellow who was met soon after, there is Reason to believe, that there are at least Four in the Gang of Villains.
 The Master of a coasting Schooner from Port Royal, who came in last Friday Evening, informs us, that Capt. Symour, in a large Bermuda Sloop from St. Croix, arrived there last Week, and had been chased, from Lat. 28, for two Days and Nights successively, by a large black Schooner, with a white Bottom, and very stout Top masts, which shewed Spanish Colours the whole Time, and kill'd to well that he with Difficulty escaped being informed by her People whether she was a Pirate, which he suspected.
 The Sloop from Jamaica for Virginia, that was spoke with on this Coast the beginning of last Month, and was said (in our Paper of the 12th ult.) to have been plundered by the Spaniards, soon after she was spoke with lost her Bow-sprit, and since put into Gersia: The Master's Name is James Berry. In his Passage thro' the Gulf of Florida, (not in the Windward Passage, as we formerly said), he was boarded by a fine large Bermuda-built Sloop, arm'd only with Blunder-busses, commanded by a Spaniard (who said he had taken many Prizes on this Coast during the last War) with a mix'd Crew of various Nations, who told Capt. Berry they were on a good Design, ask'd his People to join them, and upon their Refusal threatened to murder them all, but were prevented doing that by some Irishmen belonging to the Pirate; and then contented themselves with stripping Capt. Berry, a Passenger he had, and his Crew, of all their Cloaths, Money, Watches, &c. and took out of the Vessel, two negro men, a Hogheads of Rum, one of Sugar, with whatever else they wanted, and let her go.
 On Saturday arrived here His Majesty's Snow Jamaica, commanded by Capt. Hood, from Philadelphia.
 Monday last came an Account, that Twenty-five of the Settlers on Broad River, (a Branch of the Saint) were lately found murder'd and scalped in their shell Houses; and that Twenty more were
